

An Update from Andrew...

We were excited that Neil Baker made the decision after Bible Class on Sunday morning to be baptized into Christ. He had been studying and reflecting on that decision for some time, and it was encouraging to see him make that choice. It is also a reminder that the invitation to obey the gospel is always open. While coming forward after a sermon is always wonderful, we are always willing to study and baptize anyone who is ready to take that step.

Last Wednesday night, we enjoyed getting to spend time with our participants from the Columbia Bible Institute. Thank you for your support and encouragement of so many ministers from all over the south. I know they left here uplifted and energized! Wasn't it good to hear Evan Todachine speak to us on Sunday night? He did an excellent job, and his lesson reminded me how blessed we are to have both the Todachine and Austin families working with the Salt River Church of Christ. Be sure to look on our church facebook group, as Jonathan often posts updates and pictures from the work there.

On January 15, we will take a Graymere guys trip to see the Memphis Grizzlies play the L.A. Lakers. The game begins at 4:30, which means we will get back later than we have in previous years. Because tickets are in demand for this game, we aren't able to get the same seats as we have in previous years. We have one group of seats available for $25 (a little bit higher up than previous years), and another group of seats available for $45 (a little bit lower than previous years). Please sign up in the church foyer if you would like to go. We need to have a firm count by November 30th. It is always a lot of fun!

As the Thanksgiving holiday approaches, I want to remind all of us that our midweek service will be on Tuesday night at 7:00 instead of Wednesday night. We will have a combined service in the auditorium for everyone; there will be no Bible classes that night. Our elders will be leading us in a time of worship and prayer. This is always a special time, so make sure not to miss it! As we reflect on a time of thanksgiving, I am thankful for this congregation and the many ways you continue to bless my family and so many others. Let's keep learning and growing together!

Graymere Yellow Pages

Years ago we had a booklet we called Graymere Yellow Pages. It contained information about businesses owned by Graymere members. Since we no longer have that information, we would like to start this process again. If you are a Graymere member and own a business you would like to be included in the Graymere Yellow Pages, go to graymere.com and under "Contacts" click on "send us a note" and give us the information you would like the congregation to know about your business. It will take some time for us to get the information compiled and posted to the website, but we hope it will be a helpful tool to the congregation.
