

An Update from Andrew...

Today begins our Future Ministers Camp and our Spiritual Growth Camp! We have several campers, counselors, and teachers who will be with us beginning tonight and working with our camps throughout the week. Don't forget that we will have combined adult classes tonight. Craig Evans will be speaking in the auditorium. In Future Ministers Camp, we are working on sermons from the parables, and Craig will be speaking on the Parable of the Wedding Feast (Matthew 22:1-14). Craig has been a teacher at our camp for years, and he always does an excellent job sharing God's Word. Amy Fowler will be teaching a Ladies Class in the Fellowship Hall, and all ladies are invited. The Fowlers recently returned from the mission field in Belem, Brazil, and I know she will have an encouraging message to share for our SGC campers and all our ladies.

On Sunday morning, our young men will lead worship, and I know it will be a blessing to all of us. After worship, we will have our usual Bible classes, with the exception of the classes that meet in the Fellowship Hall. Because we will have set the Fellowship Hall up for our potluck meal with FMC campers and their families, those classes will meet in the Auditorium. I am thankful to our teachers and all of you for being flexible during this week and allowing us to change our normal routine. After the potluck for campers and parents, we will have a brief graduation service at 12:30. We would love for you to be there!

That day will also be "Promotion Sunday" in our children's classes. We will have a more detailed announcement that morning, but remember to prepare your children for the transition! They will meet in their current class, and then the teachers will walk them to their new classrooms. We are blessed with a great number of children, as well as talented teachers, and I am thankful for how many lives have been changed through our Bible classes!

As if Sunday wasn't busy enough, we also have a group leaving for Maury Christian Camp that afternoon! Let's keep these campers in our prayers; it is always a spiritually uplifting and encouraging time. We are blessed to have opportunities for our young people to grow. Let's all be sure we keep growing together!

Thank You

"Annette and I were overwhelmed by your expressions of love at our fair-well reception on Sunday afternoon May 21. The cards you gave us and the tender and heart-felt notes you wrote will remain with us for many years to come. Your personal comments uplifted our spirits and made us realize how much we have gained from our communion with you over the years.
We especially want to thank the elders and their wives for organizing the reception and providing the beautiful decorations and refreshments. The public expression of appreciation by Fred from the elders was both humbling and motivating. We will miss you all but will try to visit as often as we can. Our home will always be open to you if you visit us in Huntsville."

Chuck & Annette Wortman

"Thank you so much for your prayers, food, offers to bring food, cards, phone calls, e-mail/Facebook notes, visits, and flowers during the past month. I am doing much better. It is so humbling to be a part of this wonderful Graymere family. I love my church family. Thank you."

Gift Card Shower for the Schwartz family

Jon David, Amy, Abigail and Lane Schwartz have been working with us at Graymere for several months, however, they recently moved to their new home in Columbia. The elders have suggested we "shower" them with gift cards on June 18 following evening worship. There is a box in the church office window where you may drop off your gift.
