

An Update from Andrew...

Sundays are always encouraging, but our Back to School Sunday is a special time every year! We were blessed by an outstanding message by Ben McGreevy on Sunday morning. He and Amelia Black have done an excellent job as our youth interns this summer. Tonight is their last night with us, and I know you will want to let them know how much you appreciate their hard work. Roger Riddle led us in some special prayers for our returning teachers, administration, and staff for local schools, as well as for our students. I know that not all our teachers might enjoy coming up front, but it was an incredible sight to see all the adults from Graymere that are impacting our community! Those group pictures are included in the bulletin. That afternoon, many attended the Bridal Tea for Sarah Ray. After that, several began setting up and cooking in preparation for our Area-Wide youth devo. Phil Waggoner led an early period of singing that afternoon, and he did a great job leading all 725 of us in song during worship that night. Daniel McNatt, youth minister for the Main Street Church of Christ in Springfield, TN, challenged us with a great, encouraging message. Thanks to the hard work of Jon David Schwartz, Amy Schwartz, and many others, we had plenty of food after worship.

Tonight, we will be blessed by hearing the perspectives of a few of our college students. They have thought carefully about tonight's topic, and it will be insightful to hear what they have to say. We have had a great group in our 20 Somethings class this summer, and their perspectives will be valuable. Let's keep learning and growing together!
